heikou. - Heidi Koubek

born 1983 in Freistadt/Austria based in Vienna, Austria since 2008

- since 2005 extensive engagement and exploration of art and creative expression
- 2008 - 2010 studies in Painting and Process-Oriented Art Forms, Vienna Art School with Mag. Barbara Daum and Mag. Gerlinde Thuma
- Works on paper and canvas, as well as digital and photographic
- Fascination with lines and dots, colours, shapes, structures, patterns, surfaces, micro – macrocosms
- since 2010 expansion of artistic expression through working with textiles, sewing as a way to connect different materials and techniques,
the line becomes the thread, the sewing machine becomes a drawing tool, continuous expansion of expressive possibilities through experimentation and combining various materials

*„My greatest source of inspiration comes from nature and the materials themselves.
Here, I can draw from an abundance of possibilities.
An experimental approach to materials and the organic, intuitive process while creating a work are vital. Most of my works usually develop from the center or orient towards the center.“*
